NOTES

Congo: Rebel activity seems to be stepping up somewhat in widely separated areas in the eastern Congo. Rebels from the Fizi area near Lake Tanganyika have increased their harassment of government garrisons immediately north of Albertville and at Uvira. There are unconfirmed reports that Beni-- 225 miles north of Uvira--is in rebel hands. Government forces, including aircraft and additional mercenary reinforcements, seem sufficient to block further rebel advances. however.

Cyprus: Negotiations between Greece and Turkey are stalled on Athens' rejection of the idea of ceding part of Greek Thrace in return for Ankara's accepting the union of Cyprus with Greece. Premier Papandreou's growing domestic political problems severely limit his maneuverability on this issue. Athens is now trying to interest the British in sharing with the Turks control of one of their bases on Cyprus by way of compensation.

Poland: The transfer of internal troops from the Ministry of Interior to the Ministry of Defense, effective today, appears to place all significant militarized forces in Poland under the direct control of Defense Minister Spychalski. These troops, which number about 45,000, assuming border guards are included, have been used chiefly as internal security forces or as border guards. It is unlikely that the bulk of these troops will be relieved of internal security duties. The transfer, however, probably will result in more efficient use of Poland's military manpower.
